

TORONTO GENERAL HOSPITAL/ McGill UNIVERSITY HEALTH CENTRE
DEPARTMENTS OF PHARMACY SERVICES
HIV SPECIALTY RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Preceptor Evaluation Form

Resident _____

Date _____

Preceptor _____

Rotation _____

OBJECTIVES	SCORE*					COMMENTS
	1	2	3	4	5
EDUCATIONAL
1. The preceptor defines objectives and expectations clearly.
2. The preceptor provides an effective learning environment.
3. The preceptor encourages the resident to work independently.
4. The preceptor provides constructive feedback to the resident throughout the rotation.
5. The preceptor helps to clarify misunderstandings, difficult concepts.
6. Requests by the preceptor are commensurate with duties of a pharmacist.
7. The preceptor is an effective teacher.
COMMUNICATION
1. The preceptor encourages the resident to ask questions and express ideas.
2. The preceptor communicates clearly and effectively with the resident.
3. The preceptor helps the resident to develop/improve both oral and written communication skills.

OBJECTIVES	SCORE*					COMMENTS
	1	2	3	4	5
PERSONAL
1. The preceptor is accessible and approachable.
2. The preceptor takes responsibility for his/her role in the resident's education.
3. The preceptor establishes a rapport with the resident on a professional level.
4. The preceptor promotes self-confidence in the resident.
5. The preceptor is knowledgeable in his/her area of specialty.
6. The preceptor is an effective role model.

* Score:     1. Unsatisfactory (Poor)
                  3. Average (Good)
                  5. Excellent (Superior)

2. Needs Improvement (Weak)
4. Above Average (Very Good)

How could the preceptor improve the rotation?

---

---

Additional Comments:

---

---

Preceptor Signature: _____

Resident Signature: _____